

BRUCE LICHT

FOUNDER OF MY ELEVATOR PITCH FOR GOD, ENTREPRENEUR, AND AUTHOR

Bruce grew up in Lafayette, California and received a BA in Political Science from UCLA as well as a Graduate Gemologist degree from the Gemological Institute of America. After graduating, Bruce operated his family's 100 year-old retail fine jewelry business for twenty-two years. Bruce had a passion for computers and graphic arts, so he changed careers and joined his best friend at a national technical publishing company for seventeen-years as the company's Publisher, where they invented the modern labor law poster industry, including the first "All- On-One Labor Law Poster" and "Labor Law Poster Compliance Plan."

Aside from being the Founder of this website, My Elevator Pitch for God, Bruce was the co-editor of the book titled, Elevator Pitches For God: Volume 1, and author of the cookbook titled, Immediate Chef: No Previous Experience Required.

Bruce's goals for this website are: To introduce more people all around the world to God and strengthen the faith of those who already believe in a non-political and non-religious way, to bring people together, find common ground between different faiths, create meaning in people's lives, and start to move the world in a better direction.

Hundreds of Unbroken Chains

BRUCE LICHT

How do you convince millions of something that didn't happen? The more witnesses there are to something, the greater the reliability is that it occurred. There were more people who collectively witnessed, in person, God's revelation at Sinai (more than 3 million people)¹ than any other event in human history, and they all survived to perpetuate it. Therefore, there's no event that has more reliability. The following is one of hundreds of "unbroken chains," from teachers to students, from parents to their children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and so on, until today,³ proving God's existence.

Footnotes:

1) The Jews were counted in censuses three times during their 40-year journey through the Wilderness to the Land of Israel. The first census (in Numbers, Parshas Barmidbar, Chapter 1, starting with Verse 1) was taken in the year 2449, or 1312 BCE, which was about six months after they had left Egypt. This census counted all males above the age of 20 to serve in the army. It did not count women, children, grandparents, etc. In this census, the count came to 603,550 (not including the Levites which numbered 23,000). If one figures there were an equal amount of women, twice the amount of children and grandparents, it is not hard to come up with a figure of 3 million Jews who left Egypt (not including the couple hundred thousand of "Mixed Multitudes" who were estimated to have left Egypt with them).

2) Definitions:

Rabbi - The word "Rabbi" means "my master" or "teacher" in Hebrew. Rabbi is the catch-all term for anyone who has "semichah," which means rabbinical ordination. A rabbi is a religious leader of Jewish people.

Rav - The term "Rab" refers to a Jewish leader from Babylon who received ordination in the diaspora in their own schools. More recently, the term "Rav" is now commonly used, and has come to refer to someone who has had more extensive training and experience in providing guidance related to practical halachah (Jewish law). A Rav also gets appointed by a community.

Nasi - A generation's Jewish leader is referred to as the "Nasi."

Rabban - This title was reserved for the patriarchate, the Nasi or the president of the rabbinical court.

Rabbenu - The term "Rabbenu" means "our Rabbi."

Mar - The term "Mar" means "Master."

Mar Rav - The term "Mar Rav" (or Rav Mar or Mar Rab) means "Master Rabbi."

Gaon - The term "Goan" was originally given to the head of an educational academies in Babylon. More recently, it is given to someone who is considered a genius.

3) Below (with more details) is just one example of hundreds of "unbroken chains" of transmission from the revelation at Mount Sinai until you, today:
